Defrauding of investors by Anubhav Group

5418. DR. M. N. DAS: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of a private company named Anubhav Group which established its Registered Head Office in Chennai and sub-offices in almost all the cities and towns of the country and defrauded hundreds of thousands of unsuspecting citizens and disappeared from everywhere after misappropriating crores of rupees;

(b) if so, whether Government would bring the culprits to book; and

(c) whether Government have thought of ways and means to recover the public money from the economic offenders?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) to (c) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), which regulates collective investment schemes (CIS), vide its press release dated November 26, 1997 and its public notice dated December 18, 1997, directed existing schemes to file the details of their schemes with SEBI. According to information filed by M/s Anubhav Plantations Ltd. on January 28, 1998, it had mobilised a total sum of Rs. 127.13 crores under 4 schemes.

According to information collected by SEBI, the office of the company has been sealed by police authorities. Registered letters written by SEBI to the company were returned undelivered.

M/s. Anubhav Plantations Ltd. is a respondent in a writ petition filed in the Delhi High Court. The Court has inter -alia, restrained them from selling, disposing of and/or alienating their immovable properties or parting with the possession of the same. Their directors have also been interdicted from transferring their immovable properties in any manner whatsoever. The Court also made it clear that its order will not come in the way of companies intending to refund the money to their investors. In a writ petition field In the High Court at Madras, the Court has passed similar orders.
